

E-Motion

If you go crazy for a change
What are you waiting for
Let the universe roll with you

Why do you hold on
To your expectations and patience
When you're in so much pain
Get stronger and cross lines
Walk to a new life
Today is the day to create it

Welcome to Europe in motion
Soar with your dream to your station
Welcome to Europe in motion
Take your dream to your space station

Like when you sky dive
For the first
You're feeling so high
When you follow your dreams
This is the sound of your heart
It's beating so hard
Cause you may get what you want

Welcome ...

And when your addictions
Whisper low
I kiss you so softly
And hold you close
Just let them all go
Let go, let go

These are the days
Of grand illusion, confusion
While everything falls apart
Follow the stream of vision
And intuition
To the ocean of your heart

Like when you sky dive
For the first
You are feeling so high
When you follow your dreams
This is the sound of your heart
It's beating so hard
Cause you may get what you want

Welcome ...
